REASONS FOR CHOOSING US

WHAT IS A FOREX CURRENCY TRADER?

Forex traders (foreign exchange traders) anticipate changes in currency prices and take trading positions in currency pairs on the foreign exchange market to profit from a change in currency demand. They can execute trades for financial institutions, on behalf of clients, or as individual investors. To make profitable trades, forex traders need to be comfortable with massive amounts of data and rely on a mixture of quantitative and qualitative analysis to predict currency price movements.

Smart Trading

Know your pip value and margin requirement at a glance and set orders based on P&L, price or pips.

Trading Central

Get actionable trade opportunities and identified patterns from our Trading Central research portal.
